Disabilities and Sociocultural Characteristics

Disability	Behavior	Sociocultural/ Language Considerations
Emotional Impairment	Fails to talk; extreme social withdrawal
	Arrives late; confuses time
	Poor interpersonal relationships
	Fights or harrasses others
	Behaves impulsively
Cognitive Impairment	Difficulty putting on coat/ clothes
	Very slow growth in content areas
	Unable to name colors and simple personal details
	Behind peers physically (Gym class, recess time)
	Difficult to understand speech

Disabilities and Sociocultural Characteristics

Speech & Language Impairment (SLI)	Student does not respond to verbal directions/ questions
	Student has long wait time
	Student can't pronounce certain sounds when speaking/reading
	Student lacks verbal fluency
	Student speaks "around" subject; doesn't "get to the point"
Specific Learning Disability (SLD)	Comprehending text
	Phonological awareness
	Remembering sight words/ vocab
	Applying math facts to complex problems
	Grammatical patterns
	Applying multi-step story problems	